Time-----Today
Locale-----New York City Thumb Nail Theme-----Tom Harper absorbed chlorine gas in the big fight overseas and hit the home sector on one lung, with a mother and crippled sister to support. Things looked like the inside of a lead vault until Tom championed a kid that a prize ring brute knocked down and laid the bullying champ in a dusty spot.
The alleged champ's manager saw it and picked Tom for a winner. He discovered Tom had been the A.K.F. champ and that he needed three thousand for a hurry-up operation on little sister Sally, and signed Tom to go away to the mountains for three months' rest before winning a championship that would bring in the three thousand. Tom had to agree not to exert himself on any provocation; and in living up to this he took insults and a horse-whipping from a roughneck gentleman who didn't like his attentions toward a pretty girl in the mountain village. Tom went back for the prize fight, made the grade, and then went back to the mountains on personal business that didn't have any kid gloves mixed up in it -- except the white ones the girl wore.
